

EROS, INTIMACY AND THE MIND OF GOD

Dr Patricia Weerakoon

The Smith Lecture 2012

Patricia Weerakoon is a medical doctor turned sexologist and writer. Her passion is to bring good holistic sexual health to all people, and she does this through practical sex education, sex research and sex therapy. Patricia has a recognised media presence and is a highly regarded public speaker and social commentator in sexuality and sexual health.

“ As a doctor and a sexologist I am captivated by the exquisite complementarity of male and female reproductive systems and the hard wiring in the brain that draws the two together in desire, love and bonding. ”

ABOUT THE SMITH LECTURE

The death of Bruce Smith of leukemia in 2001 deprived Australia of one of its most erudite and inspiring theologians, public speakers and teachers. A prominent Anglican spokesman on ethics and religion during the late 1960s and early '70s, Smith was active in the public media, taught classics, philosophy and theology, and had a lifelong interest in poetry, painting and music. Bruce Smith left a legacy of engagement with society in its political, ethical and cultural dimensions. He believed in the broad significance of the Christian message of reconciliation with God through the person and work of Jesus Christ. The Smith Lecture programme intends to develop further this work of engagement. It provides an opportunity for an eminent Christian public figure to present his or her perspective on a subject relevant to the life of our nation.
