

Conflict: Fight, Flight or ?

Conflict: Fight, Flight or ?

In our life conflict is inevitable.

How we handle conflict can affect ongoing relationships. Is your first instinct fight (over-react), flight (retreat) or is there a different way? Where does God fit in a conflict situation?

Over dinner hear Geetha, a doctor, working as a rheumatologist in both public and private practice, speak about the insights she has gained over her 30 year career.

There will be time for Q & A.
