

fear of the future

Wednesday 18 March • 5.45pm-8.15pm

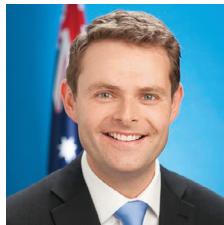

It's 2020, and with uncertain political structures, exponential technological innovation, the growth of extremism, and the cascading effects of climate change, many of us have a creeping sense that things might be escalating beyond our control.

Do these developments fuel greater anxiety and uncertainty in us than things did in previous generations? How can we face the future without a numbing sense of fear?

Hear Dr Sam Chan (City Bible Forum) and Hon. Stephen Mullighan MP (Shadow Treasurer SA) give their perspective on what pushes our buttons about the future.
