Film Synopsis

Based on the true-to-life autobiographical accounts from A Long Way Home by Saroo Brierley which provides a glimpse into the world of adoption and all that's involved in the process. As his first feature film, director Garth Davis provides a balanced perspective on the journey that many adopted children experience in answering the questions of who were my birth parents and where are they now? Through Brierley's accounts as a five-year-old lost in the interior of India to his adult pursuits of his family roots, this helps to show the blessings and demons of the adoptive process.
