

First Impressions

- What did you think of the content? (Event, film, podcast, etc)
- What were the highlights and the weaknesses?
- Would you recommend it to someone else? Why?
- If you were to address one thing from the content about redemption, what would you say?

Discussion Points

- On the subject of redemption, what did you think the messaging was from this content?
- Did you learn something new about redemption or did this content complement your view? Why?
- Has redemption been part of your life? Or has it been about someone who is in your life?

Deeper Considerations

Redemption is not perfection. The redeemed must realise their imperfections. - John Piper

- Do you have personal stories of turning your life around?
- Does God factor into your past stories? Why or why not?

Biblical considerations on the subject of redemption:

For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good. - Titus 2:11-14

Do these words support or differ with your view of redemption and God? Why?

What's Next?

Did this discussion pique your interest? If so, check out The Word One-to-One.

It's a great way to dive deep into what the Bible says about Jesus, and how it addresses the many topics we hold close to our hearts today.