Discussion Points

- On the subject of faith, what did you think the messaging was from this content?
- Did you learn something new about the future or did this content complement your view? Why?
- How would you have said it differently?

Deeper Considerations

With all of the discussions around multi-verses, the natural progression would be to discuss the future. Can we change it?

Are we relegated to this path in life? Is there hope for the future, even if my past has been less than satisfactory?

Biblical considerations on the subject of faith:

- "The heart of man plans his way, but the Lord establishes his steps." - Proverbs 16:9
- "Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." And he who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." - Revelation 21: 1-5

Do these words support or differ with your view of the future and God? Why?
